abnormal appearance
The symptomatology of — —: an anecdotal survey. D. L. Harris, 312 anastomosis
Accumulation of isotope labelled platelets in small arteries after end-to-end and end-in-end — in the rabbit. J. B. Wieslander, M. Aberg & P. Dougan, 158 Microarterial — in the rat: the influence of different suture materials on the patency, strength and the electron microscopic appearance of the vessels. T. T. E. Pitt & N. L. M. Humphries, 150
Microvascular — of arteries under tension. S. P. Chow, C. D. Huang & C. W. Chan, 82
The correlation of histology to needle type in microvascular —: a quantitative analysis. A. F. Cook, J. A. I. Grossman, E. S. Herpy & M. I. Dinner, 156
The temporary stent technique: an easier method of microvenous —. F. C. Wei, K. Mancer & R. N. Zuker, 92 angiotomes
The forearm —. B. G. H. Lamberty & G. C. Cormack, 420 anticoagulation
A world survey of — practice in clinical microvascular surgery. D. M. Davies, 96 areola — transposition technique in the reconstruction of breast deformities due to burns. O. O. Erol & M. Spira, 36
arterialised venous network
An axial-pattern flap based on the — — —: an experimental study in rats. T. Voukidis, 524 avulsed
A simple method of taking skin grafts from the — flap in degloving injuries. R. J. A. Goris & J. P. A. Nicolai, 58 avulsion Traumatic — of penile and scrotal skin. F. M. Tripathi, J. K. Sinha, V. Bhattacharya & L. A. Bariar, 302
axillary region
Fasciocutaneous flapes in the — —. D. E. Tolhurst & B. Haeseker, 430

blastomycosis
The correction of microstomia following South American —: a case report. J. L. Pereira and A. P. Silva, 204 block dissections
The use of myocutaneous flaps in — — of the groin in cases with gross skin involvement. S. Parkash, 413 bone Forehead reconstruction using a bi-pedicled — flap. J. G. Vandervord, J. D. Watson & G. M. Teasdale, 75 Bone grafting
— — of secondary cleft lip and palate deformity. I. T. Jackson, J. G. Vandervord, J. G. McLennan, F. B. Christie & J. C. McCregor, 345 breast
Areola transposition technique in the reconstruction of — deformities due to burns. O. O. Erol & M. Spira, 36 Immediate reconstruction of the — following modified radical mastectomy for carcinoma. D. R. Marshall, E. J. Anstee & M. J. Stapleton, 438
Soft tissue reconstruction of the — using an external oblique myocutaneous abdominal flap. D. R. Marshall, E. J. Anstee & M. J. Stapleton, 443
Breast augmentation
Capsular contracture in — —: a return to the good old days? A. F. Wallace, 374 Breast reconstruction — — with a lower abdominal myocutaneous flap. E. A. Gandolfo, 452 Post-mastectomy — — in an irradiated field using a contralateral latissimus dorsi free flap. R. Vila & A. Guinot, 371 burn
A major — in early pregnancy with maternal survival and pregnancy progressing to term. J. H. Stilwell, 33 Malignant melanoma and squamous cell carcinoma in a — scar. M. F. Muhlemann, R. W. Griffiths & J. C. Briggs, 474 burns Areola transposition technique in the reconstruction of breast deformities due to —. O. O. Erol & M. Spira, 36.

jejunum
Microvascular free — transfer. D. W. Robinson & A. MacLeod, 258 juvenile hypertrophy Subcutaneous mastectomy for — — of the breast; report of a case. D. W. Furnas, 367

L

Laser Doppler flowmeter
The — — — for microvascular monitoring: a preliminary report. B. M. Jones & B. J. Mayou, 147
latissimus dorsi
A denucled "turn over" deltopectoral flap combined with a — — myocutaneous flap in the repair of extensive radionecrosis of the chest wall. T. Tomono, T. Hirose, K. Matsuo & T. Matsui, 63
— — muscle free flaps. B. N. Bailey & A. M. Godfrey, 47
Post-mastectomy breast reconstruction in an irradiated field using a contralateral — — free flap. R. Vila & A. Guinot, 371 Shoulder defect cover with functional restoration using the — — myocutaneous flap: a case report. M. F. Lai, B. C. Milroy & D. G. Pennington, 140
The use of the — — island flap for intra-oral reconstruction J. S. Watson, 408 latissimus dorsi myocutaneous flap Pharyngeal reconstruction using the — — — —. J. S. Watson, G. A. Robertson, J. Lendrun, M. F. Stranc & M. J. Pohl, 401 lecture
The computer programmed multi-image —. B. McC. O'Brien & V. K. Rao, 489
Lop ear
Non-surgical correction of a congenital — — deformity by splinting with Reston foam. N. Kurozumi, S. Ono & H. Ishida, 181 lower abdominal myocutaneous flap Breast reconstruction with a — — — —. E. A. Gandolfo, 452

M

Malignant fibrous histiocytoma
— — —: a recurring disease. A. Makepeace & N. B. N. Ibrahim, 466
Malignant melanoma
— — and squamous cell carcinoma in a burn scar. M. F. Muhlemann, R. W. Griffiths & J. C. Briggs, 474
A retrospective study of 275 cases of cutaneous — — in the East Midland region. M. Y. Bos & M. Deane, 60
mandible Reconstruction of defects involving the — and floor of mouth by free osteo-cutaneous flaps derived from the foot. A. M. MacLeod & D. W. Robinson mastectomy
Immediate reconstruction of the breast following modified radical — for carcinoma. D. R. Marshall, E. J. Anstee & M. J. Stapleton, 438
Median cleft lip — — — associated with bimanual hexadactyly and bilateral accessory toes: another case. A. Gopalakrishna & R. L. Thatte, 354
microarterial
— anastomoses in the rat: the influence of different suture materials on the patency, strength and the electron microscopic appearance of the vessels. T. T. E. Pitt & N. L. M. Humphries, 150
Micro-arteriography — — in experimental surgery: an improved method. A. Hoynck van Papendrecht, S. P. van Bemmelen & L. Nieuborg, 000 microstomia
The correction of — following South American blastomycosis: a case report. J. L. Pereira & A. P. Silva, 204
microtia
The surgical treatment of —: a long term review of 17 patients. A. G. Fraser & A. C. H. Watson, 185 microvascular
— anastomosis of arteries under tension. S. P. Chow, C. D. Huang & C. W. Chan, 82

A world survey of anticoagulation practise in clinical — surgery. B. M. Davies, 96.
— free jejunum transfer. D. W. Robinson & A. MacLeod, 258
The correlation of histology to needle type in — anastomosis: a quantitative analysis. A. F. Cook, J. A. I. Grossman, E. S. Herpy & M. I. Dinner, 156
The Laser Doppler flowmeter for — monitoring: a preliminary report. B. M. Jones & B. J. Mayou, 147
The use of continuous temperature monitoring in the post-operative management of — cases. A. G. Leonard, M. D. Brennen & J. Colville, 337
Micro-venous
The temporary stent technique: an easier method of — — anastomosis. F. C. Wei, K. Mancer & R. M. Zuker, 92 monitoring
A simple and effective method of — free muscle transfers: a preliminary report. A. Batchelor, S. Kay & D. Evans, 343 muscle
The behaviour of free — and musculocutaneous flaps after early loss of axial blood supply. C. T. K. Khoo & B. N. Bailey, 43
musculocutaneous
The behavior of free muscle and — flaps after early loss of axial blood supply. C. T. K. Khoo & B. N. Bailey, 43
musculo-cutaneous
Salvage of a seriously injured lower limb with a — — cross-leg flap. A. P. Landra, 40 myocutaneous
Reconstruction of the axilla with a pectoralis major — island flap. E. Freedlander, K. Lee & J. G. Vandervord, 144
Soft tissue reconstruction of the breast using an external oblique — abdominal flap. D. R. Marshall, E. J. Anstree & M. J. Stapleton, 443
Myocutaneous flap
A denuded "turn over" deltopectoral flap combined with a latissimus dorsi — — in the repair of extensive radionecrosis of the chest wall. T. Tomono, T. Hirose, K. Matsuo & T. Matsui, 63
Reconstruction of major abdominal wall defects using the tensor fasciae latae — —. P. M. O'Hare & A. G. Leonard, 361 Shoulder defect cover with functional restoration using the latissimus dorsi — —: a case report. M. F. Lai, B. C. Milroy & D. G. Pennington, 140
The pectoralis major — — for intra oral reconstruction: a word of warning. D. J. Hodgkinson, 80 myocutaneous flaps
The use of — — in block dissections of the groin in cases with gross skin involvement. S. Parkash, 413

N

nail
— relocation by nail flap in digital injuries. B. V. Krishna & A. D. Pelly, 53
Nasal pharyngoscopy
The feasibility of — — using the 70° Storz Hopkins nasopharyngoscope. S. T. J. Gilbert & R. W. Pigott, 14
Nasal pharyngoscopy
Comparative reliability of — — and videofluorography in the assessment of velopharyngeal incompetence. S. W. Sinclair, D. M. Davies & A. Bracka, 113 nostril
Elongation of the — and columella using an island flap. R. Fujimori & Y. Harita, 171

The use of — — to replace conjunctiva and to correct ectropion. Satya Parkash, 206 programmed freezing
Skin preservation by — —. R. Blondet, M. A. Gibert-Thevenin, C. Pierre & A. Ehrsam, 530

radionecrosis
A denuded "turn over" detopectoral flap combined with a latissimus dorsi myocutaneous flap in the repair of extensive — of the chest wall. T. Tomono, T. Hirose, K. Matsuo & T. Matsui, 63 reconstruction
Immediate — of the breast following modified radical mastectomy for carcinoma. D. R. Marshall, E. J. Anstee & M. J. Stapleton, 438 — of defects involving the mandible and floor of mouth by free osteo-cutaneous flaps derived from the foot. Allan M. MacLeod & D. W. Robinson, 239
— with the use of a sheath of fine stainless steel wire mesh. A. D. Dias, 498 Soft tissue — of the breast using an external oblique myocutaneous abdominal flap. D. R. Marshall, E. J. Anstee & M. J. Stapleton, 443

scalp
Successful transposition of a large — island flap based on the superficial temporal artery with no obvious venous drainage: case report. H. Ohtsuka, Y. Nara & Y. Miki, 300

scapular
The — free flap. S. G. A. Hamilton & W. A. Morrison, 2
The — flap — an anatomical and clinical study. B. J. Mayou, D. Whitby & B. M. Jones, 8 seagull flap
The — — for syndactyly. P. J. Smith & S. H. Harrison, 390 skin-graft blade
A simple — — — for use on a scalpel handle. H. P. Henderson, 394 Skin preservation
— — by programmed freezing. R. Blondet, M. A. Gibert-Thevenin, C. Pierre & A. Ehrsam, 530
Split-skin
The long term results of intra-oral — — grafting. E. Freedlander & L. R. Scheker, 376
Squamous cell carcinoma
Malignant melanoma and — — — in a burn scar. M. F. Muhlemann, R. W. Griffiths & J. C. Briggs, 474
Sterno-clavicular joint Temporomandibular arthroplasty by transfer of the — — — on a muscle pedicle. S. O. Siemssen, 225 Subcutaneous mastectomy — — for juvenile hypertrophy of the breast: report of a cse. D. W. Furnas, 367 Experience with 250 cases of — —. J. Toennissen, J. Schrudde & W. Nieman, 458 syndactyly
The seagull flap for —. P. J. Smith & S. H. Harrison, 390

temperature monitoring
The use of continuous — — in the post-operative management of microvascular cases. A. G. Leonard, M. D. Brennen & J. Colville, 337
Temporomandibular arthroplasty — — by transfer of the sterno-clavicular joint on a muscle pedicle. S. O. Siemssen, 225
tenocutaneous
A gastrocnemius — island flap. A. H. Bashir, 436 tensor fasciae latae Reconstruction of major abdominal wall defects using the — — — myocutaneous flap. P. M. O'Hare & A. G. Leonard, 361 thymoxamine
Augmentation of flap survival by —. C. B. Patel, A. Marsili & P. J. Sykes, 88 tricalciumphosphate — as an implant material: preliminary report. C. Walter & P. B. Brunt, 510
trigeminal anaesthesia Reconstruction of a defect of the ala nasi following — — with an innervated forehand flap. N. R. McLean, and A. C. H. Watson, 201
Trilobed flap
— — in facial reconstruction. H. Ohtsuka, Y. Miki & N. Shioya, 493
Tumoral calcinosis
— —: a case report and review of the literature. K. B. Gan 177
"turn-over"
A denuded "— —" deltopectoral flap combined with a latissimus dorsi myocutaneous flap in the repair of extensive radionecrosis of the chest wall. T. Tomono, T. Hirose, K. Matsuo & T. Matsui, 63
"turn over" flaps
One-stage random-pattern de-epithelialised — — — in the leg. R. L. Thatte, 287

U

unilateral cleft lip Radical muscle mobilisation in the surgical repair of a — — —. R. L. Thatte, 356
urethral fistulae
A method of closing — — using a purse-string or interrupted silk sutures. M. F. Fatah, 192

Velopharyngeal incompetence
Comparative reliability of nasal pharyngoscopy and videofluorography in the assessment of — —. S. W. Sinclair, D. M. Davies & A. Bracka, 113
Some characteristics of endoscopic and radiological systems used in elaboration of the diagnosis of — —. R. W. Pigott & A. P. W. Makepeace, 19
The results of 100 operations for — — selected on the findings of endoscopic and radiological examination. E. H. Albery, J. A. Bennett, R. W. Pigott & R. M. Simmons, 118
Vermilion grafts
Split — — in reconstruction lip surgery. T. R. Vecchione, 68
